

Background

Each spring, universities from all over the world participate in the International Collegiate Business Strategy Competition which is the world's longest running, most comprehensive business competition.

In the spring of 2025, the Competition will celebrate its 61st year of delivering an exciting and challenging learning experience for students.

How the Competition is Judged

Senior business executives evaluate the teams based upon their overall financial performance, how well they implemented their strategic business plan, their oral presentation, and the quality of their written documents. Awards are given in each world to the teams that placed first, second, or third.

What Makes the Competition Unique?

Has a remote AND intensive on-site in person phase in Anaheim

Involves the development and execution of strategic business plan

Is the longest running and most comprehensive business competition in history

Join Us This Spring

- Registration deadline: December 31, 2024
- In-person phase of competition: April 24-26, 2025

Cost

Registration fee of $2,100 for one team and $1,200 for each additional team from the same campus. The fee includes a team license and all program administration costs. A team normally consists of four to six students and their faculty advisor.

About the Judges

Our judging crew includes current and former executives of Northrop Grumman Aerospace Systems, Juniper Technologies, Shamrock Foods, Intel, Stantec Consulting, Pacifica SD Management, Bank of America, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Levi Strauss, and many more.

